THE CASE FOR PRIVACY

R.R. HAUXLEY

PRIVACY

A UNIVERSAL

HUMAN RIGHT

R.R. HAUXLEY

1 MAN + 1 BITCOIN

1 YEAR AROUND THE WORLD

China → Access to the truth

India → Avoiding unjust taxes

U.S.A. → Whistle blowing

Traveling → Enjoying media

Doing “Illegal” things.

pseudonymity vs. anonymity

Bitcoin & most cryptocurrencies no longer anonymous.

- Link our address to us 1 time -- done
- Japan banned Monero, Zcash, DASH
- Chainanalysis + other firms track people

MimbleWimble

Anonymity = financial freedom

Genesis: Tom Elvis Jedusor-- July, 2016 -- Tongue-tie spell

Important points:

- 1) No addresses (A tough concept to grasp)
- 2) No transaction details
- 3) No clue a transaction even happened
- 4) Fast data = 10% of what Bitcoin uses
- 5) BTC implementation requires hardfork

Beam & Grin

Friendly competition

Crypto 'currency' vs. crypto 'store of value'

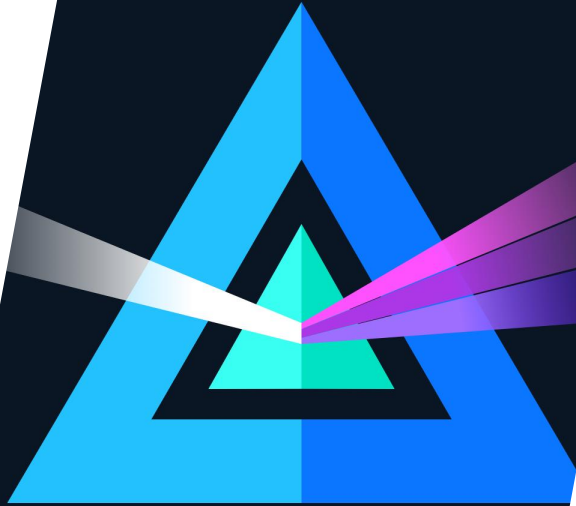

Grin = infinite coins /// Beam = 263 million

Both = No ICO, no pre-mine, Nothing

Grin = donations /// Beam = 20% of mined blocks

Grin = CLI /// Beam = CLI, GUI, Android, iOS

Grin = future? /// Beam = nonprofit foundation

B E A M

TOGETHER

Financial Freedom

Beam = storing your gold in a safe no one can see
Grin = storing your cash in a wallet no one can see

Beam mining: Equihash. During the first year of Beam, miner reward = 80 coins per block.

Years 2-5 = 40 coins per block.

Year 6 = 25 coins

Halving will occur every 4 years.

In the first year, the Treasury will receive 20 Beams per block, and in the years 2-5 the Treasury will receive 10.

The Treasury will be used to incentivize the Core Team and to support the Beam Foundation.

A man with a beard and glasses, wearing a red shirt and khaki pants, is walking under a yellow canopy structure. The canopy has a geometric, triangular pattern. In the background, there are other people and a building with a brick facade.

A view of a temple with multiple spires and stupas, surrounded by lush greenery. The scene is captured during sunset or sunrise, with a warm orange glow in the sky. Several hot air balloons are visible in the distance.
